PROVIDING 22 MILLION MEALS
ONE MEAL AT A TIME

2014 ANNUAL REPORT
“The food pantry is a community, and there is so much love. It’s more than just a snack after school. They really help you. And I love the oranges!”

J’VION
Food Pantry Client
Canton, OH
The Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank is proud to partner with hunger-relief agencies to provide food to those facing hunger in our community

ONE MEAL AT A TIME.
Dear friends,

Achieving our mission to Feed People and Fight Hunger means constantly developing new methods to better serve those in need. Our work in 2014 set the tone for an even deeper level of strategic innovation, and we are proud to have you with us.

In 2014, the Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank had a record-breaking year—distributing enough food to our member agency programs for 22 million meals. We get the question asked often, “How do you provide 22 million meals?”

And our answer is always the same. ONE MEAL AT A TIME.

The theme of this year’s annual report focuses on the one—one client, one supporter, one volunteer, and a representative from one member agency—all of whom help us in our work to end hunger in our community.

The special part is what happens when we add everything up. We get a strong, highly-motivated community of people whom we are proud to call supporters, partners and friends.

Everything we’ve accomplished on behalf of those we serve has been possible because of people like you. It’s your compassion that drives us forward and enables us to lead the way in the fight to end hunger right here in Northeast Ohio.

Thank you for your continued support; WE COULDN’T DO IT WITHOUT YOU!

Dan Flowers
President & CEO

Richard P. Wilson
Chair, Board of Directors
“It’s more than just food. Food means relationships, and it brings people together.”

CHEF SHERRY
Shy Cellars
Strasburg, OH
Chef Sherry owns a small restaurant in the quaint town of Strasburg, Ohio. Although her restaurant is in a small town, that doesn’t stop her from doing big things for others. In 2014, she helped provide 172,588 meals for those facing hunger. She’s a passionate Foodbank advocate who is proud to be involved in giving back to the community that gives to her.

CHEF SHERRY IS ONE OF 17,178 SUPPORTERS ON WHOM THE FOODBANK DEPENDS YEAR AFTER YEAR.
“As a volunteer, I feel engaged in the mission of the Foodbank and connected to feeding people in my community.”

ABDULLAH
Foodbank Volunteer
Akron, OH
Abdullah began volunteering after graduating from college while he was job searching. With his résumés sent and time on his hands, he chose the Foodbank because of its flexible schedule. While he shared that the people at the Foodbank make it great, it’s knowing he’s helping place food on a family’s table that makes him stay.

ABDULLA IS ONE OF 8,051 VOLUNTEERS WHO DONATED THEIR TIME TO HELP THOSE IN NEED.
“We aren’t just feeding for today—we are feeding for our future. It’s our core mission in action.”

REV. LANCE
St. John’s United Church of Christ
Glenmont, OH
After seeing so many of her community members struggling, Reverend Joanna Lance started a food pantry—and now serves much more than food. She focuses on the meal and what happens after the meal, like career counseling and helping people move out of poverty and into something sustainable.

REV. LANCE REPRESENTS ONE OF 512 PROGRAMS IN OUR 8-COUNTY NETWORK OF HUNGER-RELIEF AGENCIES.
One county at a time

Carroll
14 agency programs provided 710,551 meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 4,020 individuals who are food insecure in Carroll County.

Holmes
8 agency programs provided 934,521 meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 5,460 individuals who are food insecure in Holmes County.

Medina
39 agency programs provided 920,028 meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 19,050 individuals who are food insecure in Medina County.

Portage
35 agency programs provided 1,439,043 meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 23,710 individuals who are food insecure in Portage County.

8 COUNTIES
Your Foodbank provides food and other essential items to member agencies in eight Northeast Ohio counties. These member agencies operate programs like food pantries, hot meal sites, shelters and other hunger-relief programs in the neighborhoods and communities where people need food.

512 agency programs provided 22 million meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 223,000 individuals who are food insecure in our 8-county service area.

Food insecurity

One in seven people and nearly one in four children in the counties the Foodbank serves will experience food insecurity this year.

Food insecurity refers to the U.S. Department of Agriculture’s measure of those who lack regular access to safe and nutritional food.

OVERALL FOOD INSECURITY RATE

15.3%

CHILD FOOD INSECURITY RATE

23.8%
105 agency programs provided 5,142,320 meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 57,410 individuals who are food insecure in Stark County.

266 agency programs provided 7,964,227 meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 85,570 individuals who are food insecure in Summit County.

17 agency programs provided 3,685,672 meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 12,790 individuals who are food insecure in Tuscarawas County.

28 agency programs provided 664,033 meals worth of food in 2014 to assist the 14,990 individuals who are food insecure in Wayne County.

Of those served by the Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank, some households are forced to make trade-offs between paying for food and paying for other necessities. The information below was captured through Hunger in America 2014, Feeding America’s sixth extensive study of hunger.
