Your donations are helping children and senior citizens, just like Carmen and José

Carmen is visiting Heart to Heart Ministries, a member agency of the Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank. After receiving a bag full of fresh groceries, including frozen chicken and daily multi-vitamins, Carmen sits down and holds her three-year-old grandson, José. José is one of Carmen’s six grandchildren, and while Carmen talks, José digs through her grocery bag to find a snack—his favorite granola bars.

Carmen first heard about the food pantry from a friend who knew of her struggles. “I ran out of food; my cupboards were empty,” Carmen said. “I’ve been working since I was 15, but now I just can’t.”

Living on a fixed income and having to make choices about paying necessary bills or buying groceries, Carmen appreciates the pantry and what it does for her community.

“THIS FOOD PANTRY MEANS SO MUCH TO PEOPLE. THEY KNOW THAT WHEN THEY RUN OUT OF FOOD, THEY ALWAYS HAVE A PLACE TO GO.”

At your Foodbank, almost half of all individuals served are children or senior citizens, our most vulnerable populations. This statistic comes from Hunger in America 2014, Feeding America’s most comprehensive study of hunger, which has been conducted every four years since 1993.
WIN THIS GUITAR

AUTOGRAPHED BY THE BLACK KEYS

In an effort to give back to their community throughout their Turn Blue World Tour, The Black Keys will be selling raffle tickets to benefit your Foodbank. Raffle Items Include:

- Dan Auerbach’s childhood guitar (autographed by The Black Keys) which was a gift to Dan from his father, and the instrument that the lead vocalist learned to play on. The guitar, a Supertone, was Dan’s first guitar.

- An autographed poster of Guitar World, with Dan featured on the magazine’s cover.

“This amazing donation has us star-struck and over-the-moon thrilled at the same time. For Dan to raffle his childhood guitar to support his Foodbank says a great deal about his heart, and the commitment The Black Keys have to Northeast Ohio, and the neighborhoods where they grew up.” —Dan Flowers

THE WHY

This Foodbank FOCUS newsletter is devoted to keeping you up to date on how your donations are impacting the fight to end hunger in our community and ways you can continually be involved. We are incredibly fortunate to be able to partner with you in this cause, and we thank you for the opportunity to stand with you, together, in support of those in need.

At a recent Foodbank staff meeting, we went around the room and asked our team—why. Not what they do, or how they do it, but why they do it. What keeps Foodbankers motivated to help feed those in this community on a daily basis?

We share this with you because we want to hear your—why. What keeps you motivated? Email us at info@acrbf.org and your answers could be highlighted in future Foodbank pieces.

As one person, I cannot change the world, but I can change the world of one person. Just like one meal will not change our world, but it changes the world for one person.

Everyone deserves to be loved. Feeding someone is one way we can love them.

I get to see an average of 100,000+ pounds of food leave our facility each day knowing it’s all going to individuals struggling with hunger.

Because of Kelly, Jose, Bernadette, and all of the other individuals and families struggling to put dinner on their tables tonight.

All people, especially children, need food – the most basic need – to become healthy, productive citizens.

Your Foodbank’s new website is designed with you in mind

We are pleased to share with you our new website, akroncantonfoodbank.org. The website serves the person needing to find a food pantry for the first time after losing a job, the volunteer looking for new opportunities, and our donors looking for ways to give back. We welcome you to our new website.
Harvest for Hunger campaign helps our neighbors struggling with hunger

Locally, one in seven individuals is at risk of hunger. In an effort to continue to fight hunger in our community, we need your help! Join us this spring by participating in one of Ohio’s largest food & funds drives, Harvest for Hunger. There are many ways you can support the campaign.

HOST A FOOD & FUNDS DRIVE
Gather your friends, family or coworkers and join the more than 200 local organizations who host food & funds drives. Simply visit our website for campaign materials and to register your drive.

CHECK OUT HUNGER
Shop at participating supermarkets and ask your cashier to scan a $10, $5 or $1 donation coupon as you Check Out Hunger. Then, take a selfie and tag your picture on social media, #ICheckedOutHunger.

Thank you for being a Hunger Hero!

The Foodbank’s Hunger-Free Families campaign took place this past November and December to create awareness, take action and help provide food to families facing hunger during the holiday season.

Thanks to you and Hunger Heroes across the community, the 2014 campaign was a record-breaking success, and our neighbors in need had nourishing, holiday meals to share.

On Friday, December 12, the Foodbank partnered with 98.1 WKDD, Rock 106.9, 99.7 Canton’s New Country, 640 WHLO and My 101.7 for the annual Long Haul Against Hunger. Listeners of all the stations drove by Kisling, Nestico & Redick in Summit County, iHeart-Media in North Canton and The J.M. Smucker Co. in Wayne County to drop off food and financial donations all day.

Also a part of the Hunger-Free Families campaign, your Foodbank hosted Double Your Dollar Day on Cyber Monday. For every $1 donated, a generous friend of the Foodbank matched the gift!

On December 2, the Foodbank was a part of #GivingTuesday, a global day dedicated to giving back. Community members visited participating restaurants including Bob Evans, Chipotle and The Spaghetti Warehouse, where a percentage of their purchase was donated to the Foodbank.

Your Foodbank wrapped up this spirited campaign with the annual Selfless Elf 5K run. More than 700 runners (including Santa!) ran the 3.1-mile course beginning and ending at the Foodbank.
