Thank you for bringing hope to families like Tabitha and Elijah’s.

Walking into the Barberton Area Community Ministry, a member hunger-relief program of the Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank, Tabitha holds the hand of her four-year-old son Elijah, and in her other hand she holds the car seat of her three-week-old baby.

Tabitha and her husband both work full-time, but due to her unpaid maternity leave, her family’s budget is extremely tight.

Through tears Tabitha says, “I am so thankful for this place, and the people here are so kind. The first time I visited the pantry, I couldn’t believe how healthy and fresh the food is. As a mom, it’s an incredible feeling to give my children the nourishing foods they need.”

Tabitha has five children from ages three weeks to 23 years old, and like most kids, they can never eat enough. “My kids love the chicken nuggets and apples that we get here. I love the fresh breads, meats and canned vegetables.”

Elijah heard his mom say “chicken nuggets” and runs over to say, “I love those! Can we have them today?”

She looks down at him and with a big smile and says, “Sure, sweetheart.”

Because of supporters like you, the Akron-Canton Regional Foodbank had another record-breaking year. Learn more about the impact of the Foodbank in 2015 inside.

We are incredibly fortunate to be able to partner with you in this cause, and we thank you for the opportunity to stand together, in support of those in need.

We recently asked a few staff members, donors and volunteers—why. Not what they do, or how they do it, but why they do it. What keeps people in this community motivated to help those struggling with hunger on a daily basis? And the answers amazed us.

We share this with you because we want to hear your—why. What keeps you motivated? Email us at info@acrfb.org and your answers could be highlighted in future Foodbank pieces.

I volunteer at the Foodbank for a selfish reason... it makes my day brighter! The Foodbank staff is so passionate about helping others and their passion is contagious! The work that is accomplished here is very rewarding, as a volunteer or employee; it’s evident in the positive, cheerful, caring environment created.

Every day, I come to work and can give back to the community. Because our team is here, families facing hunger will have meals to share; it just doesn’t get better than that.

I have been volunteering for seven years now, and I can say that I truly love being here at the Foodbank with my friends. After surviving two major heart attacks, it is my privilege to be able to help others.

I was raised in a family that demonstrated philanthropy before I knew the meaning of the word. When she was young, my mom had shelves of food in the basement due to her own food insecurity, and always packed bags of food for our relatives, church members, or neighbors that were going through hard times. I can still hear her voice in my head, “No one should ever have to go hungry.”

Our Foodbank is one of our best community assets, serving friends and neighbors in need while providing an everyday example of the generosity and compassion of people who live in this region! I am proud to be a new Foodbanker!

We couldn’t do it without you!
